1. Explain the Biopsychosocial model of treatment.
2. What are the two goals of incarceration?
3. Discuss drug trafficking and the penalties of trafficking.
4. Define simple possession and discuss penalties.
5. Explain the issues of paraphernalia and the penalties.
6. Discuss the rates of incarceration for drug use offenses. Be sure to explain the differences between federal and state rates of incarceration.
7. Explain prison-alternative treatment programs.
8. What are prison-based treatment programs?
10. What are employee assistance programs? Member assistance program? Why do we have these?
11. Discuss the 5 stages of change in regards to rehabilitation.
12. Why is it important to explore the impact on the family when there is a drug abuser in the family?
13. What are the stages that family members go through when they have a member who is a drug abuser?
14. Explain the enabling behaviors that families engage in.
15. Discuss the roles that family members may take on when there is a drug abuser in the family.
16. What is resistance at the beginning? What is support along the way?
17. Describe the three recommendations for treatment given by health professionals.
18. What questions should you ask when exploring treatment options?
19. Explain the principles that maximize the chances of success in treatment.
20. What can we do to reduce the number of individuals that need treatment versus those that receive it?